

SCHOLARSHIP COSTS FOR A COYOTE STUDENT-ATHLETE

For decades, a full scholarship has been defined by the NCAA as tuition & fees, room, board and books. The demands to balance academics and athletics have grown and most of our students do not have time to engage in part-time or summer employment to supplement the costs of their education. Providing cost of attendance is important and helps address the incidental expenses associated with attending USD.

The cost of attendance allowance can be used for other educational expenses like additional rent, food, school supplies/computer, transportation, clothing and personal items.

? WHAT IS THE HOWLING PACK?

The Howling Pack is the annual fundraising program of the Athletic Department at the University of South Dakota. The Howling Pack promotes and financially supports the USD Athletic Department and all Coyote athletic teams, while encouraging the development of the student-athlete.

WHY IS THE HOWLING PACK IMPORTANT?

“ MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

COYOTE FANS,

Thank you for your commitment to Coyote Athletics over this past year. Your dedication to our students is appreciated beyond measure. Because of the generosity of our Howling Pack members, more than 440 student-athletes were able to compete and feel the championship level experience as a Coyote.

The 2020-21 season certainly looked different, but our Coyote community remained strong. Our student-athletes impressed us with their strength and focus over the last year. All 18 of our teams competed in the spring, making space and time challenging, but they worked through it with grace and flexibility.

Though some seasons didn’t get every opportunity envisioned, Coyote Athletics still has a lot to celebrate. Thank you for remaining dedicated to our student-athletes year after year. You provide them with opportunities to grow academically, athletically and socially.

The success of our student-athletes is not possible without your support. I ask that you remain committed to the Coyotes and join today, renew your membership or increase your annual gift. Again, thank you for your support of Coyote Athletics.

GO YOTES!

David Herbster

Director of Athletics
