

SCHOLARSHIP COSTS FOR A COYOTE STUDENT-ATHLETE

For decades, a full scholarship has been defined by the NCAA as tuition, fees, room, board and books. The demands to balance academics and athletics have grown and most of our students do not have time to engage in part-time or summer employment to supplement the costs of their education. Providing cost of attendance is important and helps address the incidental expenses associated with attending USD.

The cost of attendance allowance can be used for other educational expenses like additional rent, food, school supplies/computer, transportation, clothing and personal items.

HOWLING PACK

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA

WHAT IS THE HOWLING PACK?

The Howling Pack is the annual fundraising program of the Athletic Department at the University of South Dakota. The Howling Pack promotes and financially supports the USD Athletic Department and all Coyote athletic teams, while encouraging the development of the student-athlete.

WHY IS THE HOWLING PACK IMPORTANT?

Gifts made to the Howling Pack are used for program enrichment and to fund scholarships for University of South Dakota student-athletes. Scholarships help student-athletes with costs such as tuition/fees, meals, housing, books/supplies, transportation and personal expenses.

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

COYOTE FANS,

This last year brought us one of the most memorable years in the Division I era for University of South Dakota Athletics. We can't thank our more than 440 student-athletes enough for bringing home conference championships, tournament championships, individual awards, an electric March Madness tournament run and an unforgettable last second catch.

These accomplishments are fueled, in part, by the generosity of our Howling Pack members. Thank you for helping give our athletes a means to compete and have a true championship-level experience as a Coyote.

As we say goodbye to the seniors and thank them for their dedication to USD, I look forward to the upcoming year. Coyote Athletics is fortunate to have outstanding coaching leadership across all sports and I am excited to welcome some new faces who will also, without a doubt, make an indelible impact on our student-athletes.

The success of these programs and our student-athletes is not possible without your annual support. I ask that you remain committed to the Coyotes and join the Howling Pack, renew your membership or increase your annual gift. Encourage a neighbor, friend or coworker to come to a game with you to cheer on the Coyotes. Again, thank you for your support of Coyote Athletics.

GO YOTES!

David Herbster

Director of Athletics
